What is Pasta Fritti?

History

Pasta Fritti is a variation of Arancini (deep fried stuffed rice balls), a traditional Sicilian appetizer and side dish.

They used different stuffings per region:

- Beef and onions
- Mozzarella (traditional Roman)
- Ricotta and spinach (characteristic for Silica)

Composition

Triangular Samos made of a specific pasta dough

Preparation

Drop the deep frozen Pasta Fritti into a chip pan (175°C) for about 2,5 minutes.
